ITINERARY

Day 1, Monday, June 25, 2012: Arrive in Berlin...Transfer to our hotel... Free time to walk in the nearby Tiergarten and adjust to the time change. This famous Berlin park is featured in the current best seller, "In the Garden of Beasts" by Erik Larson. Welcome dinner this evening at a local restaurant. Overnight Berlin.

Day 2, Tuesday, June 26, 2012: Breakfast...We begin our tour of Berlin with a visit to the Reichstag building, with its famed glass dome, and internal ramp structure. Continue to the "Topography of Terror" Museum to visit the site where between 1933 and 1945, the central institutions responsible for the repressive and criminal policies of National Socialism—the Gestapo and SS—were located. After lunch (on own), continue to the Kreuzberg area. Founded in the 1920's by Jewish settlers, the area today has a large immigrant population and is known as a bohemian cultural center in Berlin, where Germany's punk rock movement thrived, among others. We visit the Kulturforum, a collection of cultural buildings built in West Berlin in the 50s and 60s. Here we visit the Neue Nationalgalerie, Berlin's Modern Art museum and sculpture garden. Return to our hotel for a free evening...Overnight Berlin.

Day 3, Wednesday, June 27, 2012: Breakfast...This morning we'll visit The Pergamon Museum. One of the most popular attractions in Berlin, the Pergamon Museum is world famous for its archaeological holdings. The Pergamon is located on Museum Island, and really consists of three museums in one—the collection of Classical Antiquities (also on display in the Old Museum), the Museum of the Ancient Near East, and the Museum of Islamic Art. The Pergamon Museum's monumental highlights are truly breathtaking to behold. After a short tour as a group, we will continue on our own through the grounds. This afternoon is free to explore Museum Island. This evening, we enjoy a Canal Boat Ride through Berlin. Overnight Berlin.

Day 4, Thursday, June 28, 2012: Breakfast... We join up with the rest of the Cantors Assembly for the commencement of the main mission.
