Germany ITINERARY

DAY 1, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 27 • Begin Our Journey

Depart on our flight to Germany or connect to Berlin from a CA Pre-Tour.

DAY 2, THURSDAY, JUNE 28 • Arrivals—Exploring Berlin

Arrivals at Berlin airport and train station. Upon arrival, convention participants will be met by Ayelet Tours representatives and local hosts for assistance. Transfer to the hotel for check-in and a chance to freshen up. A guided orientation bus tour of Berlin will be offered to those arriving early, passing by Potsdam Plaza, the Jewish Museum, Checkpoint Charlie, Bundestag, Brandenburg Gate, Berliner Dome, Victory Column, and Tiergarten among other major sites. Our expert local guides will offer commentary along the way. A Jewish Heritage Tour will also be offered today, visiting the Jewish Cemetery, Lindenstraße Synagogue Memorial, The Mirrors Memorial For Textile Industry and more. Evening transfers from the hotel to the opening lecture by Professor Stephen Berk at the Rykestrasse synagogue, one of the most beautiful synagogues in Europe, built in the 19th century and now fully restored. We enjoy the opening ceremony of the mission, service and concert, which will honor the legacy of the great German cantors and composers, with over 100 Cantorial voices and local choirs participating. Overnight Berlin.

DAY 3, FRIDAY, JUNE 29 • History revisited

Breakfast. This morning we visit the Foreign Ministry of the Republic of Germany to be greeted by the foreign minister and addressed by the highest level diplomats in honor of our sacred mission, including representation by the US Embassy, the Canadian Embassy, and the Israeli Embassy.

TRACK ONE: HISTORY IN POTSDAM

Breakfast. This morning we depart for a full day tour of Potsdam, Berlin's sister-city. En route, we cross the Gliencke Bridge, a famous exchange point for Soviet spies during the days of the Cold War. In Potsdam we view the stunning Sanssouci Palace and Gardens, built by Frederick the Great. Continue to Cecilienhof Manor, site of the famous 1945 meeting between Truman, Churchill and Stalin. We walk to the University of Potsdam to see the Geiger College, home of the new Cantorial and Rabbinical School.

TRACK TWO: BERLIN IN DEPTH

Tour Berlin with an expert local guide, including stops at Checkpoint Charlie, the East Side Gallery, the Reichstag, with its famed glass dome, and Charlottenburg Palace. We also visit sites of Jewish importance, including the Gleis 17 Memorial, Olympic Park, the Holocaust Memorial and the Burning of the Book Memorial.

Tonight we enjoy a Kosher Shabbat dinner together at the Maritim Hotel Ballroom. For Shabbat services, we transform the Berlin Concert Hall into a synagogue for the evening, as we recreate the grandeur and splendor of the German Jewish musical tradition, and meld it with the American Jewish Musical tradition in a once in a generation service. The hall is a short walk from our hotels (buses available). Overnight Berlin.

DAY 4, SATURDAY, JUNE 30 • Shabbat Shalom!

Breakfast. This morning we attend Shabbat services in the space of the New Synagogue, a historic synagogue that survived Kristallnacht

Germany Highlights:

- Concerts celebrating our Jewish Musical Tradition
- A unique Shabbat Experience in Berlin
- The honoring of women cantors & rabbis in the place of the first female rabbinic ordination (1935)
- Unprecedented interfaith gathering & concert
- Ceremony at Olympic Park Munich, featuring Olympic Gold Medalist Mark Spitz and other special guests
- Fourth of July Concert celebration in Munich
- Discover history and interface with the blossoming Jewish communities throughout Germany
- Jewish and general sightseeing tours of Berlin, Potsdam and Munich
- Lectures throughout by world renowned lecturer Prof. Stephen Berk
- 4 nights Berlin: June 28–July 2, 2012
- 3 nights Munich: July 2–5, 2012

in 1938, but was partially destroyed during WWII. A permanent exhibition details the history of the synagogue's rebuilding, begun in 1988. Here we honor women cantors and rabbis in the same place where the Jewish community embraced the first ordained woman

THE TRIP TO POLAND AND ISRAEL WAS WONDERFUL!!! ABOVE AND BEYOND EXPECTATIONS.

"You have a wonderful professional and organized organization and I am very impressed with how smooth the entire trip was thanks to all your hard work and efforts. I can't wait for the next one!" —B. Feinstein, Los Angeles, CA, 2009 CA Mission to Poland & Israel

rabbi in 1935. We celebrate the birth of the Egalitarian movement, which began in Germany before WWII. It is another spiritual and unforgettable moment that we will share together. This afternoon will include meetings and study sessions with members of the Berlin Jewish community as well as a lecture by Professor Stephen Berk. Dinner on own. This evening, we tour the Berlin Jewish Museum, followed by a unique Havdallah service celebrating Ashkenazi, Hassidic and Sephardic traditions in the museum's gardens. Overnight Berlin.

DAY 5, SUNDAY, JULY 1 • History in Potsdam or Berlin in Depth

Breakfast. Today we join the opposite track from the one taken on Friday. This afternoon we participate in or attend a very special Cantorial and Interfaith concert at the famed Berliner Cathedral Dome, the largest protestant church in Europe. The dome is larger than St. Peter's Basilica and has one of the world's most outstanding organs. The concert features Jewish texts with compositions by an array of interfaith composers, including Kurt Weil, Leonard Bernstein, Samuel Adler, Charles Fox, Louis Lewandowski, Beethoven, Handel and Mozart, with the Cantors Assembly festival chorus, the church chorus and world renowned soloists. Overnight Berlin.

DAY 6, MONDAY, JULY 2 • Berlin to Munich: Jewish Music & Culture Festival

Breakfast. Group flights to Munich included. Upon arrival, we enjoy a panoramic tour of Munich en route to our hotels. Depending on your flight's arrival time, touring may include the Old and New City Hall with its famous chimes, the New Jewish Cultural Center & Museum,

Israel Highlights:

- Moving Shabbat services on the Southern Steps of the Temple Mount
- High level updates from VIP speakers
- Cantorial concerts in Jerusalem and Tel Aviv
- Multi track touring throughout to suit first timers, return visitors and special interests

Options include:

- Follow the path from the Holocaust to the foundation of the state of Israel
- Explore the issues of the security fence from both sides of the border
- In depth tour of Jerusalem's Old City
- Tour Masada and float in the Dead Sea
- Environmental outing tracing the path of Israel's green movement...and many more!
- 4 nights Jerusalem: Jul 5–9, 2012
- 2 nights Tel Aviv: Jul 9–11, 2012

and the Palace Nymphenburg with its Royal Gardens. This afternoon we attend a special ceremony at Olympic Park, honoring the memory of the Israeli athletes that were assassinated during the 1972 Olympic Games. Special guests will include nine time Olympic Gold Medalist Mark Spitz and other honored dignitaries. Free time for dinner. This evening we join the Munich Jewish community for a festival of Jewish Music and Culture. Overnight Munich.

DAY 7, TUESDAY, JULY 3 • Dachau

Breakfast. Early morning departure to Dachau, which was liberated by the US Army led by General George Patton. It was the first of the Nazi concentration camps, originally meant for political prisoners, including Jews, Catholic clergy, Protestant clergy and others fighting or opposed to Nazism. The memorial site today houses a museum, archive and library. Here we will visit the former concentration camp and join together in a service and special memorial. We gather for a lecture by Professor Stephen Berk. Boxed lunch included today. Free afternoon. Possible concert this evening. Overnight in Munich.

DAY 8, WEDNESDAY, JULY 4 • In Munich, Optional Excursions

Breakfast. We begin this morning with a lecture by Professor Stephen Berk tying together our entire experience in Germany. We also have a group discussion with Jewish community members at the New Synagogue. The remainder of the day is free day to enjoy Munich's museums, shopping and culture.

Optional Excursion A:

Neuschwanstein Castle, the fairy tale castle used as inspiration for Disneyland's Sleeping Beauty castle ($80)

Optional Excursion B:

Nuremberg, site of Nazi rallies leading up to WWII and site of the Nuremberg trials after their defeat ($75)

Optional Excursion C:

Munich additional touring (no cost). Special farewell concert and 4th of July celebration. Overnight Munich.

DAY 9, THURSDAY, JULY 5 • Departure

Transfers from our hotel for our flights to Israel, home or another exciting destination!

Israel ITINERARY

DAY 1, THURSDAY, JULY 5 • Welcome to Israel!

Arrival in Tel Aviv at Ben Gurion Airport. Meeting and assistance by our Ayelet representative. Transfer to Jerusalem. We stop atop Mt. Scopus for a special 'Shehecheyanu!' blessing as we overlook the City of Gold. Check into our hotel and enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure. Overnight Jerusalem.

DAY 2, FRIDAY, JULY 6 • Exploring Jerusalem

Breakfast. Split up on our various Track Touring Options:

TRACK ONE: DARKNESS TO LIGHT:

Participate in a visit to Yad Vashem, Israel's Holocaust Memorial and Museum, where the many moving exhibitions honor the memory of those who perished at the hands of the Nazis. Memorials visited include the Hall of Names and the Avenue of the Righteous Among the Nations. We visit the gravesites of Theodor Herzl, Golda Meir, Yitzhak

Rabin and many other Israeli dignitaries at the Har Herzl Cemetery. Continue to the Herzl Museum, where we learn about the life and work of the great Zionist dignitary. Continue to Machane Yehuda and see the people of Jerusalem busily preparing for the approaching Shabbat.

TRACK TWO: ISRAEL MUSEUM:

The Israel Museum recently completed a $100 million renovation, and the resulting museum is world class in every way. Our visit to the Israel Museum will start at the Shrine of the Book, where the Dead Sea Scrolls are preserved and displayed, along with many other ancient artifacts. We view the fascinating Model of Jerusalem as it stood during the time of the Second Temple, recreated in stunning detail. Continue our visit to the Israel Museum – showcasing everything from classic and renaissance art, to modern and pop installations. We give special focus to the Judaica exhibitions and the special exhibitions on display. The Jack, Joseph and Morton Mandel Wing for Jewish Art and Life presents the religious artwork of Jewish communities worldwide, with works dating from the Middle Ages to the present. Continue to Machane Yehuda and see the people of Jerusalem busily preparing for the approaching Shabbat.

TRACK THREE: A BORDER OR A FENCE:

Enjoy a panoramic view from the Haas Promenade to learn about the current security and border issues in Israel, in general and specifically in Jerusalem, as we view the widely discussed security fence. We visit the Museum on the Seam, built along the 1967 border splitting east and west Jerusalem, where socio-political exhibitions communicate ideas of peace and co-existence. Continue to Machane Yehuda and see the people of Jerusalem busily preparing for the approaching Shabbat. We welcome Shabbat as a group on the Southern Steps of the Temple Mount as one extended family. Enjoy Shabbat dinner together at beautiful Blaustein Hall, overlooking the Tower of David and the Old City Walls. Overnight Jerusalem.

DAY 3, SATURDAY, JULY 7 • Shabbat Shalom!

Breakfast. Shabbat Shalom! Morning Shabbat services at the Hirsch Auditorium. We enjoy Shabbat lunch together at Beit Shmuel. This afternoon we split up on our various walking tour tracks:

TRACK ONE: THE OLD CITY: Visit the Museum of the History of Jerusalem at the Tower of David, the Arab Shuk/bazaar, the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, the Christian Quarter, Jewish Quarter, the Western Wall and Mt. Zion before we return to our hotel.

TRACK TWO: NACHLAOT NEIGHBORHOOD AND HANEVIIM STREET:

Walk through these two unique neighborhoods and learn about the history of Jerusalem through the prism of the many varied communities that have settled here from around the world. Free time to relax. Havdalah as a group overlooking the Old City from Montefiore's Windmill in Yemin Moshe. Overnight Jerusalem.

DAY 4, SUNDAY, JULY 8 • Current Events Update and Track Touring

Breakfast. Israel politics and affairs briefing by Gil Hoffman, chief political correspondent for the Jerusalem Post. Split up on our various Track Touring Options:

TRACK ONE: IR DAVID (CITY OF DAVID) AND THE JEWISH QUARTER:

Explore the archeological wonder at the cornerstones of Jerusalem at Ir David, the original City of David. Relive King David's conquest of Jerusalem over 3,000 years ago, as we discover the amazing new excavations and the ingenious water system. Continue inside the Old City walls to visit the Burnt House, destroyed a month after the Second Temple fell, for an audio-visual presentation with fascinating details about the ancient days of Jerusalem. Here we discover life as it was lived during the time of the Second Temple. We also visit the Herodian Mansions and learn about the lifestyles of the wealthiest Jerusalemites over 2,000 years ago. We visit the ancient Hurva Synagogue in Jerusalem's Old City, which recently underwent an extensive reconstruction.

TRACK TWO: MASADA AND THE DEAD SEA:

Depart Jerusalem as we travel south and descend to the lowest place on Earth - the Dead Sea. From here we ascend Masada by cable car to the legendary mountain fortress, once a luxurious palace built by Herod the Great and later the last stronghold of the Jewish rebellion against the Romans. We explore the unique remains including the bathhouse, water cisterns, storerooms and the synagogue. Later we have a chance to swim (float) in the mineral rich Dead Sea.

TRACK THREE: BEHIND THE GREEN LINE:

We travel south past Bethlehem through the tunnels out of Jerusalem. Visit Gush Etzion and its museum and see the way that Gush was during Israel's War of Independence, and how it stands today. Continue to Efrat, a city located in the West Bank, and meet with residents and hear about their way of life, philosophy, and the challenges of living on some of the most controversial real estate in the world.

Enjoy the afternoon at leisure. This evening there is a special Cantorial Concert celebrating the people of Jerusalem. Overnight Jerusalem.

DAY 5, MONDAY, JULY 9 • Track Touring

Breakfast. Depart Jerusalem and split up on our various Track Touring Options:

TRACK ONE: SDEROT AND THE ESHKOL REGION:

We depart south and visit Sderot. Meet with Mayor David Buskila at a local school and hear about the area's recent development and future projects. Drive along the Gaza border and meet soldiers stationed there. We proceed to a high-tech farm, where we meet with a representative to learn about the technical advances in farming.

TRACK TWO: THE GREENING OF ISRAEL:

As we depart Jerusalem we stop in a JNF Forest for a special tree planting, connecting us physically to the Land of Israel. Continue with a visit to a Nesher Factory, Israel's only producer of concrete, where we learn about how this company is transforming itself in order to be more environmentally friendly. Next we visit the Hiriya Garbage Dump, which is being transformed into the Ayalon Park in one of Israel's most ambitious recycling projects. We end our day with a visit to high-tech car energy developer A Better Place, where we learn about Israel's development of the "green" car of the future. This afternoon, we check into our hotel in Tel Aviv. For those participants who did not join a touring track today, there will be a bus available to transfer from Jerusalem to Tel Aviv at 12 noon. Overnight Tel Aviv

DAY 6, TUESDAY, JULY 10 • Free Day

Breakfast. Free day in Tel Aviv for relaxing and shopping. This evening we enjoy a farewell dinner and Cantorial Concert. Overnight Tel Aviv.

DAY 7, WEDNESDAY, JULY 11 • Departures

Breakfast. Transfer to the airport to meet our flight home, or join a CA Post Tour.
