MISSION OF THE CENTURY

the exclusive Hadassah Centennial Pre-Convention Society of Major Donors Mission

12 - 15 October 2012 (T 110)

Friday, 12 October

Arrive in Jerusalem. Check-in to either the David Citadel or King David Hotel. After a Shehecheyanu at the Kotel, enjoy a Shabbat dinner at the David Citadel Hotel. Cantor Evan Cohen and Cantorial students will bring music and spirituality to our evening. Overnight in Jerusalem.

Saturday, 13 October

Attend services or enjoy a free morning. Enjoy a late morning Jerusalem walking tour; late afternoon Jewish Education experience at the King David Hotel. Saturday night we will join together at Mercaz Shimshon, a short walk from the David Citadel and King David hotels, for havdallah and reception in the garden, a political forum and dinner.

Sunday, 14 October

Donors who have contributed gifts of $100,000 or more to the Sarah Wetsman Davidson Hospital Tower are invited to attend an exclusive dedication program, including lunch and tours of the facility. All other SMD donors may choose one of the two following day-tours: Jerusalem and the Arts Tour or Israeli Politics Tour: The West Bank. Both include lunch. On Sunday evening, we enjoy a gala celebration, including a reception, tour, program and dinner at the Biblelands Museum. Overnight in Jerusalem.

Monday, 15 October

Today we will have a special behind-the-scenes visit to an IDF base. Enjoy a free evening on your own or gather with Convention friends and colleagues for dinner together.

15 October, 2012 (T 109)

19 October, 2012 (T 212)

20 October, 2012 (T 213)

One Day Tour

This morning, we head south from Jerusalem to Masada. Here, we take the new high-speed cable car to the site of one of Herod's palaces. This is the fortress made famous by Jewish Zealots who, isolated during a massive Roman siege, chose to perish by their own hands rather than surrender. Our next stop, after lunch, is one of the Dead Sea's mineral bath spas. We have time to loll in the "unsinkable" water, cover ourselves with a "therapeutic" mud cake and emerge relaxed and restored. We pass the Qumran caves, where the Dead Sea Scrolls were found, on our way back to Jerusalem.

GRAPES & OLIVES/WINE & OIL

19-20 October, 2012 (T 200)

Two fascinating days of programming will be led by Abraham Silver, Scholar in Residence, Israel's foremost Jewish educator and tour guide. We will also be joined by Barbara Goldstein, Deputy Executive Director, Hadassah offices in Israel. This is an opportunity to have Israel as our classroom - using all of our senses.

Friday, 19 October

Wine making and olive oil are amongst the oldest crafts and businesses in history - Jewish History. The Bible is filled with hundreds of references to both the vineyards and the vintage; to the olives and the oil. Our classroom will be on the site of an ancient wine press, vineyard and winery. The texts from the Torah to Jeremiah to the Song of Songs will come alive. Of course, tasting will be an essential part of the study!

Attend a synagogue service of your choice and share a traditional Shabbat dinner at the Hotel. Overnight at the Dan Panorama Hotel.

Saturday, 20 October

Following Shabbat service of your choice, walk through the streets of Rehavia and meet the Golden Age of Spain: the poets, the Rabbis. Text will be provided. Return to the Hotel for a lively Shabbat lunch and singing. We conclude Shabbat with Havdallah. Transfer to the airport for your flight home.

FIRST-TIMERS NORTHERN ISRAEL POST-TOUR

21 - 23 October, 2012 (T 208)

Sunday, 21 October

Depart Jerusalem, traveling north to the Galilee. En route, we stop in the Hula Valley where we learn about the importance of this area as a resting area for migrating birds. Continue to Tzippori, where we discover the “Mona Lisa of the Galilee” and other intricate mosaics that have been unearthed, and learn about the history of this hometown of Rabbi Yehuda Hanasi, who codified the Mishnah. Continue to Metula on Israel’s northern border, where we take in panoramic views of Lebanon and discuss Israel’s border and security issues. Arrive at our kibbutz in the Galilee, where we will enjoy dinner together. Overnight at our kibbutz guesthouse in the Galilee.

Monday, 22 October

This morning we enjoy a jeep tour of the Golan Heights, with a stop atop Har Bental to take in the views stretching deep into neighboring Syria. Continue to the mystical city of Safed, where we view the ancient Ha’ari and Caro Synagogues before enjoying a walk through the many artist studios and galleries. Dinner and overnight at our kibbutz guesthouse in the Galilee.

Tuesday, 23 October

Depart the Galilee and travel westward to Israel’s coastal region, stopping in the Crusader-era city of Akko to explore the remnants of the fortifications and British prison. Continue south to Haifa’s Mount Carmel, where we take in the views of the beautiful Bahai Temple and Gardens. We continue our journey south, stopping in Caesarea, where we discover the remains from Roman times, including the Roman Theater and Aqueduct. Continue to Jerusalem or the airport for your flight home.

Sunday, 21 October

Depart Jerusalem, traveling north through the Jordan Valley en route to Safed. Stop in Amirim, a vegetarian moshav, to enjoy a delicious lunch as we learn about the moshav's history and development. Continue to the mystical city of Safed, where we view the ancient Ha'ari and Caro Synagogues, and have time to browse among the many artist studios and galleries. Visit a nearby cheese factory to learn about the cheese-making process and taste some of the unique cheeses being produced. Enjoy a chef-hosted gourmet dinner at Mitzpe Hayamim Resort and Spa. Overnight at our kibbutz guesthouse in the Galilee.

Monday, 22 October

Enjoy a morning jeep tour through the fields of the Golan, including a stop atop Mt. Bental to take in the panoramic views stretching deep into neighboring Syria. Continue to the Ein Zivan gourmet chocolate factory for a behind-the-scenes tour and chocolate tasting. Enjoy a delicious falafel lunch in Katzrin before visiting the nearby olive oil factory, where we learn about methods in oil production from ancient to modern. Afternoon visit to a Golan winery for a tasting of the local wines. Enjoy dinner at the historic Dubrovnin Farm Restaurant this evening. Overnight at our kibbutz guesthouse in the Galilee.

Tuesday, 23 October

Participate in a bird-watching expedition in the Hula Valley. Continue to the "Garden of Eden," orchard with its vast array of trees and plants. Enjoy lunch on site before visiting a nearby spice factory, where we learn about spices unique to Middle Eastern cuisine. Travel to Israel's coastal region, arriving at a Druze community, where we will enjoy dinner and hospitality as we learn about the history of their culture and lifestyle. Continue to Jerusalem or the airport for your flight home.

GREEN ISRAEL 4 DAY POST-TOUR

21 - 24 October, 2012 (T 210)

Sunday, 21 October

Depart Jerusalem, stopping in a JNF forest for a special tree planting, as we contribute to Israel's future growth. Continue with a visit to a Nesher factory, Israel's only producer of concrete, where we learn about how this company is transforming itself in order to be more environmentally friendly. We then visit the Hiriyah garbage dump, which is being transformed into the Ayalon Park in one of Israel's most ambitious recycling projects. Travel north to the Galilee, arriving at our kibbutz guesthouse. Dinner and overnight at Kibbutz Lavi in the Galilee.

Monday, 22 October

Full day bio tour of Sde Eliyahu, an agricultural kibbutz and pioneer of the organic farming efforts in Israel. Here we learn about organic farming; biological pest control; religious kibbutz life; the interaction between man and earth and between traditional and modern technology. Enjoy dinner on your own in this lovely area. Overnight at Kibbutz Lavi in the Galilee.

Tuesday, 23 October

Morning visit to the Mekorot Water System, where we learn about the company's efforts to bring high-quality water to Israel's growing population in the face of significant geographic, climactic and geopolitical challenges. Continue to the Hula Valley, where we discover the importance of this region as a resting stop for migrating birds. Dinner and overnight at Kibbutz Lavi in the Galilee.

Wednesday, 24 October

Depart the Galilee and visit the Tefen Industrial Park, where we learn about companies focused on the preservation and green development of Israel's environment, and other industries that are changing to become more environmentally friendly. We end our day with a visit to Better Place, where we see Israel's development of the "green" car of the future. Continue to Jerusalem or the airport for your flight home.
